

SCROLL DOWN

- 1 Beginning in the 1500s, European missionaries traveled to places like China to spread Christianity as part of the Catholic Reformation. How did the missionaries contribute to increased global interaction?
- A They converted to local religions, which spread throughout Europe when they returned.
 - B They shared European knowledge of science, technology, and the humanities.
 - C They established trade networks between China and Europe.
 - D They shared knowledge of Europe's many utopian societies.

- 2 Francis Bacon held the belief that assumptions should be tested many times before they were accepted. How did his ideas change society during the Scientific Revolution?
- A They reinforced that people should not question the leaders of the Church.
 - B They moved people away from the idea of faith to that of observable truths.
 - C They encouraged people to resist any man-made laws and to favor natural laws.
 - D They supported people who believed in the supernatural to control the world around them.

SCROLL DOWN

Use the excerpt below to answer the question.

These rights that are being denied people are written plainly and simply in the Universal Declaration, because Eleanor Roosevelt stood for a basic principle. The language of a document intended to be universal had to be so clear that anyone could understand it.

—Secretary of State Hillary Clinton, 2010

3 Which statement describes the significance of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights that Secretary Clinton addresses in this excerpt?

- A. The document establishes criteria for international trade relations.
- B. The document mandates that governments create supporting legislation.
- C. The document sets a standard for international treatment of individuals.
- D. The document denounces nations without a democratic system of government.

4 Which statement BEST describes the effect of these events?

Political Reform in China

- Election of local officials in the village of Xiwangping began in 1988
 - Reforms across the country are limited to local elections
 - Accusations of corruption and fraud have been made
 - Reforms at a national level have not occurred
- A. Community leaders are gaining control of private businesses.
 - B. Government bureaucrats are preserving traditional customs.
 - C. Multinational companies are supporting the national government.
 - D. Democratic principles are influencing traditional government.